The Mount Olive Township Police Department offers internships to provide a positive learning environment for interested college students to experience the various aspects and responsibilities of law enforcement first hand. While working in operational, administrative and support functions, the intern is provided with an atmosphere of learning through a combination of hands-on and observational experiences. This past summer the Department has provided internships to the below four college students.

Cameron Mandala

Cameron Mandala, 21, will be starting his senior year at the University at Albany. He is a double major in Criminal Justice and Sociology, with a minor in Psychology. Cameron was born in Mount Olive, lived in Tennessee for a little while, and returned to Mount Olive where he has spent the majority of his life. Living in Mount Olive sparked his interest in the local police department and his internship. In Cameron's free time he enjoys working on cars, riding motorcycles, fishing and practicing martial arts. He has always dreamed of becoming a police officer and that is the career path he will be pursuing in his future.

Faith Niemynski

Faith Niemynski is a senior at West Virginia University, with a double major in Criminology and Russian. She loves the beach, the outdoors, and playing soccer. Faith grew up in Mansfield Township and graduated from Warren Hills High School. Faith has worked multiple jobs while attending school full-time. After Faith graduates from West Virginia University, she hopes to one day work in law enforcement and give back to the community.

Anthony Morin

Anthony Morin has been a resident of Mount Olive for 24 years. He graduated from Mount Olive High School, and then continued his education at County College of Morris receiving his Associate's degree in Criminal Justice. He attended William Paterson University receiving his Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice along with a Minor in Sociology. Anthony has a passion for traveling around the world, along with snowboarding and weight lifting. Ever since Anthony was a young boy he has had aspirations of being a part of the law enforcement family. In 2010 Anthony took part in the trooper youth week in Sea Girt with the New Jersey State Police. Anthony is pursuing employment as a police officer.

Tyler Amandos

Tyler Amandos attended Montclair State University where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice and a Minor in Business. While attending Montclair, Tyler played baseball for the University. Tyler grew up in Hackettstown and attended West Morris Central High school where he was a two star athlete in both football and baseball. Currently Tyler is working in the yachting industry, however, he is seeking a job in law enforcement.

Chief Stephen Beecher stated: The Internship Program is another means to help us connect with the community. Our officers enjoy mentoring students and often maintain contact with them after they have graduated from college and become police officers, sheriff's officers or troopers. We are proud to offer students internship opportunities and assist them in pursuing their goals.”

Students interested in applying for an internship should submit their requests to Lt. Craig Austenberg (caustenberg@mopd.org) or Sergeant Carl Mase (cmased@mopd.org). All interns will be required to pass a background check. Opportunities are limited so apply early.
